Abstract [Arial, 11-point, bold, centred]

This template will assist you in formatting your paper. Please, copy it on your computer and insert the text keeping the format and styles indicated. The various components of your paper (title, abstract, keywords, sections, text, etc.) are already defined on the style sheet, as illustrated by the portions given in this document. [Arial, 11-point, justified alignment]

Keywords: Innovation, technology, research projects, etc. [Arial 11-point, justified alignment].

Subsection [Arial 12, bold, left alignment]

The text included in the sections or subsections must begin one line after the section or subsection title. Do not use hard tabs and limit the use of hard returns to one return at the end of a paragraph.

1.1 Sub-subsection: Guidelines for Abbreviations and Acronyms

Define abbreviations and acronyms the first time they are used in the text, even after they have been defined in the abstract. Do not use abbreviations in the title or heads unless they are unavoidable.

1.2 Sub-subsection: Guidelines for Figures and Tables

Tables, figures, and graphics should be centred, numbered and accompanied by a legend. Figure captions should be below figures; table heads should appear above tables. Insert figures and tables after they are cited in the text. Use the abbreviation "Fig. 1", even at the beginning of a sentence.

1.2 Sub-subsection: Guidelines for References

The list of the references should be given at the end of the paper. Citations will be sorted and numbered by order of appearance in the document. The standard citation format of a bibliographical reference in text must be the number of the reference enclosed in square brackets, e.g. [1].
